When Louis the Magpie hears about the traditional Cheese Race, he is immediately hooked. Carried away by his enthusiasm to win, he places a secret bet on his team's victory: the entire house and the amazing workshop of his friend, brilliant inventor Alfie Clarke! With his best buddy Luca the Hedgehog and clever Alfie on his team, Louis has no doubt he can prove himself a true racing champion. However, his confidence is shattered when his opponent's team is boosted by a wacky comedian and a fierce gorilla. Will Alfie forgive Louis and will the friends bring home the victory against all odds?
